

Book of Leadership Principles

For Leaders-in-training

In Times of Uncertainty

Add value to people by leading them to a higher level.

Courage is being afraid—but then doing what you have to do anyway.

Courage is rightly esteemed as the first of human qualities because it is the quality that generates all others. –Churchill

Create the illusion that we are bound to win.

Do not let life's unsolved puzzles and mysteries prevent you from living with joy.

In times of crisis leaders stay close to the people to give them security.

In times of crisis the tendency is to freeze, but leaders must take action.

Leaders are dealers in hope.

Leaders can be uncertain—but never unclear.

Leaders see, express, and create hope before others.

Show me a hero and I will write you a tragedy. –F. Scott Fitzgerald

Study other leaders, such as Churchill

There is no better time to serve God than now.

Where there is not faith in the future, there is no power in the present.

When do people need a leader the most? –In times of uncertainty.

When is it most difficult to lead people? –In times of uncertainty.

Five Loves in the Church

Love of God = Worship

Love of God's Family = Fellowship

Love of God's Word = Discipleship

Love of service = Ministry

Love of pre-believers = Evangelism

http://emote.net/modern_day_proverbs.html

<http://www.quotationspage.com/collections.html#classic>

<http://www.forbetterlife.org/main.asp?section=values&valueID=1&language=eng>