

Lessons from the Lives of Bible Individuals

If these people of the Bible were to speak to us today.

If Adam were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

Even what appears to be a small sin has terrible consequences.

If Noah were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

Obedience to God is more important than winning friends and influencing people.

If Abraham were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

Your blessings will out-number the stars if your life shines with faithfulness to God.

If Ruth were to speak to us today her lesson would be:

Give your love without being asked for it.

If Hannah were to speak to us today her lesson would be:

A blessing returned to the Lord will be multiplied many times.

If Solomon were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

Even the wisest person will act foolish when he allows others to distract him from God.

If Elijah were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

God can silence our fears and discouragement with a whisper.

If Mary & Martha were to speak today their lesson would be:

Devotion and service go together.

If the thief on the cross were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

It's never too late to give your heart to Jesus.

If Paul were to speak to us today his lesson would be:

If sin has made you blind, God's holiness will make you see.
